

House Resolution No. 3604

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who admirably have assisted their young charges in obtaining the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Jean Weinstock of Normandy has attained considerable distinction as a language arts teacher at Saint Charles High School, a vocational calling which she drew to a close on May 23, 2005, in well-deserved retirement after nineteen years of service; and

Whereas, in addition to her classroom duties, Jean Weinstock has contributed her time and energy in service as a varsity cheerleader coach for fifteen years, the chair of the North Central Mission Statement Committee, and a member of the National Honor Society Selection Committee and the Student Council Officer Selection Committee; and

Whereas, Jean Weinstock brought to her teaching endeavors a wealth of expertise derived from eight years of earlier employment with Maplewood-Richmond Heights High School; Florissant Junior High School; Jefferson High School in Tampa, Florida; and Winder-Barrow High School in Winder, Georgia; and

Whereas, Jean Weinstock also deserves mention of her twenty-two years as Director of Music at Normandy United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, an active citizen of the greater Normandy community, Jean Weinstock has served the people and institutions of her hometown as a member of the Saint Louis County Library Board of Directors, Angels' Arms Board of Directors, Normandy Board of Education, and Cooperating School Districts committees, including the Executive Committee; and

Whereas, Jean Weinstock has held the office of President of the Friends of the Saint Louis County Library since 2000; and

Whereas, the beloved wife of David Weinstock, Jean Weinstock is the loving mother of Kathy Weinstock Rad, Beas Weinstock Wilfong, and Tim Weinstock:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the career accomplishments garnered by Jean Weinstock at Saint Charles High School and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Jean Weinstock of Normandy, Missouri.
